

Toronto Public Library Foundation Announces New Board Chair and Board Director

Monday, June 21, 2021 (Toronto, ON); Jennifer Jones, President of the Toronto Public Library Foundation, is pleased to announce the appointment of Anne Maggisano as Chair of the TPLF Board of Directors. Anne is the Vice President of Client Relations at Burgundy Asset Management and is a past TPL Foundation Director, Treasurer and Chair of the Finance & Audit Committee. Her years of dedication to TPL, as well as her strong ties to cultural and philanthropic communities, makes her poised to support the Foundation through ambitious fundraising goals as the organization moves into its 25th year in 2022.

Anne replaces former Chair, Sarah Fulford, who stepped down last week after completing her three-year term as Chair and more than ten years as a Director. Under Sarah's impeccable leadership, the Foundation has increased its profile in the city and significantly strengthened its fundraising efforts. Sarah has been instrumental in helping to attract new corporate and individual donors and amplify the work of Toronto Public Library.

Anne Maggisano

As Vice President at Burgundy Asset Management, Anne manages investment portfolios for high net worth individuals and families. She also founded and co-leads the firm's Women of Burgundy initiative to inspire and motivate more women to make investing a priority. Anne is a member of the CFA Institute, the New York Society of Security Analysts and the Toronto CFA Society. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Canadian Opera Company and Crow's Theatre. She is a Fellow of the Royal Canadian Geographical Society and an alumna of the Royal Canadian Navy Canadian Leaders at Sea (CLaS) program.

The Toronto Public Library Foundation also welcomes new Board Member, Marlon Hylton.
